Module- 6

Q.1 What are events in Google analytics?

A.1 An event allows you to measure a distinct user interaction on a website or app. For example, loading a page, clicking a link, and completing a purchase are all interactions you can measure with events